1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-16, 19, 20, 23, and 30-72, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Houston et al, newly cited.

Houston et al teaches the claimed system comprising a radio frequency antenna (114) placed in an orbit around the earth, illuminating means (112) for transmitting and/or receiving (116) likewise orbiting around the earth located on at least a satellite separate from the one bearing the antenna, phase shifting means (128), signal mixer (converters shown in Figure 2), signal divider (128), signal combiner (134), and the use of channels (Figure 2).

2. Claims 17, 18, 21, 22, 24-29, and 73-77, are allowed.
